WITH STATELY CEREMONY KING WAS BURIED

Funeral Was The Most Imposing In History Of World

Roosevelt Rode In Coach

(By United Press.)

London, Eng., May 20. — The body of Edward VII was laid to rest today in St. George's chapel, Windsor. His funeral was the most imposing the world has ever seen and was attended by nine ruling monarchs and a host of lesser monarchs. The crowds were so dense that several panics were narrowly averted, despite the presence of 35,000 soldiers. Hundreds fainted. The weather was warm and bright, though thunder storms threatened. When the procession started every railway train and street car stopped and all labor was suspended for a few minutes.

United States Ambassador Reid was not in the procession. As a mark of special courtesy he was detailed to accompany Miss Ethel and Mrs. Roosevelt to Windsor where they awaited the procession.

The number who packed the house tops and crowded the streets to witness the spectacle is estimated at 2,500,000. They began arriving at midnight and by dawn every point of vantage was taken. The troops had to fight them back constantly to make room for the procession to pass.

As the march started every bell in London was tolled. It took two hours and seven minutes for the procession to cover the three miles between Westminster and Paddington Station. Following the passage of the procession the crowds broke into surging seas of humanity, and it seemed for a time that they would become uncontrollable.

Black was the keynote of the entire scene. Excepting the uniforms of the soldiers and many of the representatives, hardly a speck of color was visible. In the throng of spectators from the aristocrat to the humblest workman, everyone was clad in the same somber hue. Most of them had waited many hours before the procession began to file slowly from the main Westminster hall gate. But even from a spectacular point of view their long wait was well rewarded. London has seen many picturesque pageants in the past, but none has ever approached today's.

The procession was made up of detachments of the army, sovereigns of European countries and representatives of every country on the face of the globe.

Colonel Roosevelt rode in a carriage. He wore a conventional frock coat and silk hat, with a heavy band of mourning about the hat.

Arriving at Charing Cross, the funeral party boarded special trains for Windsor. The royal ties and all who were to travel to Windsor dismounted immediately on arrival at the station, and until ready to start they stood in a group, presenting a dazzling spectacle in their resplendant uniforms.

Many times over did the dead king see the car in which he was borne to Windsor today. On this occasion, however, the sumptuous trappings and the revolving fanteils had been removed, and in their place stood an imposing catafalque, some two feet high, equipped with four huge white leather wheels, the whole being draped in purple ornaments with white satin rosettes, the interior being upholstered with white satin. Broad purple stripes divided the white panels of the carriage, crowned at the top with white rosettes. All stood at attention while the coffin was reverently removed from the gun carriage, which stood in the banqueting hall of Edinborough castle which was last used for Queen Victoria's funeral, and placed upon the catafalque.

Windsor station presented a beautiful spectacle for the dead king's reception. Built with more regard for appearances than any other railway station in Great Britain, on this occasion it was decorated throughout with the choicest flowers from the Royal conservatories at Frogmore. The columns supporting the glass roof were covered with Marguerites, while tapering palms stood all around.

As the royal train drew up in the station all again stood at attention. The bands played Chopin's funeral march, the great bell of Windsor castle tolled, and a battery of Royal Horse artillery fired a salute. There was some delay in arranging the procession, but eventually it set out down the main street of Windsor, up the long walk of the castle to the foot of the round tower, through the horse shoe cloister to the steps at the west end of St. George's chapel, where the body is to be buried. Here, at the chapel door, were waiting the gentlemen at arms in their splendid uniforms of scarlet tunics and burnished helmets with waving white plumes. The honorary pall bearers remained at attention while the bearer party lifted the coffin, which weighed nearly half a ton, and bore it up the steps.

The entrance to the chapel presented one of the most impressive scenes of the day to which the grey stone walls and the noble towers, crowning battlements and the broad stretches of green turf all contributed.

Inside were nearly five thousand floral tributes.

The archbishops led the procession up the aisle, followed by the Bishop of Winchester and the Bishop of Oxford. Then came the St. George choir and behind them King George and the other monarchs. The altar was draped in purple and as the parade approached the choir chanted the nineteenth psalm. All the members of the garter were in the procession.

As the service ended Deputy King of Arms Norroy stepped forward and read the old English proclamation asking God to take the dead king and ending with the words "God save the king."

The Archbishop of Canterbury pronounced the benediction and the church emptied to the strains of Beethoven's funeral march. King George later entertained all who attended the funeral at a luncheon in Windsor castle.

Whitewash Is Ready For Sec. Ballinger

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 20.—Attorney Vertrees unexpectedly announced today, after submitting several documents that he wished added to the record that the defense in the Pinchot-Ballinger case would rest their case.

Chairman Nelson read a letter from Secretary Ballinger stating that the letters between Ballinger and George W. Perkins of the Morgan syndicate which Brandeis had asked for had been mislaid.

Brandeis called Frank L. Spaulding, former stenographer to Glavis, at Seattle, to the stand.

Those who have watched the case closely predict that the committee will vote 7 to 5 to exonerate Ballinger, and that they will withhold their decision until next December, so as not to influence the fall election.

After Spalding had refuted the statement of A. Christensen, Glavis' successor, who stated on the stand that he had never spoken to Spaulding regarding correspondence carried on by Glavis, the taking of testimony was ended.

The testimony covers 4760 pages and there are still some brief arguents and letters to be recorded. Each side will probably have four hours next Friday and Saturday for oral arguments and will have the privilege of submitting further written orders.

Two Killed In A Traction Wreck

(By United Press.)

Carlinsville, Ill., May 20.—Motorman J. F. Bobbitt and Conductor Charles Thompson were killed today when their express train on the Illinois Traction system collided with a sleeper. W. H. Clotfelter, conductor on the sleeper, jumped and sustained two broken ribs. Fire destroyed the wreck. The passengers escaped. The express car was to have waited on a siding until the sleeper passed.

GIFFORD PINCHOT WRITING A BOOK

(By United Press.)

New Haven, May 20. — Gifford Pinchot has been secretly writing a book on his experiences in the conservation fight which will soon be published. He defends his action by saying, in one chapter, that when special interests are so entrenched as to know what to expect fro mtheir enemies, it is time for the enemies to shift their ground and adopt tactics against which the interests have prepared themselves.

Herrick's Name In The Ballinger Probe

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., May 20.—Former Governor Myron T. Herrick is indignant today because of attempts made by his enemies to make political capital of a dispatch from Washington linking his name with affairs now before the Ballinger investigating committee.

The dispatch set forth that Herrick had acted on behalf of A. J. Bennett, a Missouri banker, in getting Ballinger to restore to entry certain lands withdrawn by Former Secretary James R. Garfield.

"It is small and contemptible," said Herrick, "to make a fuss over this matter."

Herrick is a candidate for United States senator against Chas. W. Dick, of Akron.

Havens Is For Tariff Board

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 20. — Representative Havens, of New York, recently elected as a Democrat, announced in the House today that he would vote for the tariff board provision on the sundry civil bill, thereby giving notice that he was not following the Democratic leadership.

"We Democrats are right on this tariff proposition," said Havens, "and the Republicans are wrong. Let us get the facts. They will bear us out."

He also declared he would not seek re-election, as there was no longer a boss to defeat in Rochester.

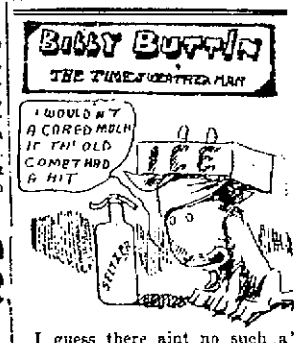
INDICTMENT IS KNOCKED OUT

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 20.—The indictment against Theodore Price of New York, in connection with the famous "cotton report leak" in 1905 was dismissed today by the supreme court of the District of Columbia on the grounds that a government agent had been present in the grand jury room when the indictments were returned.

Indictments against Moses Haas and Frederick Beckham in connection with the 1908 cotton report leak were also dismissed. Beckham and Haas are still held, however, in connection with 1905 leak.



I guess there aint no such a' thing as goin' through this life without a good share o' trouble. If you have an extra good time one day you've got to make up for it with an extra bad one some other day. That's my fix exactly. I blew some yesterday when I found we wasn't goin' to mix it up with th' comet. But today—let's hurry up with th' weather—I want to go to sleep. Here you are for tomorrow:

West Virginia and Ohio—Showers tonight; Saturday partly cloudy.

Indiana—Partly cloudy tonight; Saturday cooler.

HARRY MORRIS LOSES PLACE

Columbus, O., May 20.—Malcolm A. Karshner, Republican state central committeeman, yesterday was appointed a canal superintendent to succed Harry Morris of Portsmouth, at a salary of $1700 and expenses, by the state board of public works.

Mr. Karshner will have charge of the southern division of the Ohio canal, extending from Columbus to Portsmouth, the branch from Dresden to Zanesville and of Buckeye Lake. He was still be able to retain other two positions, as his canal duties will not be onerous.

The other five canal superintendents were reappointed. They include Charles Kuex, Toledo; Charles Gerdel, Coshocton; Chas. Hatch, Akron; William Reinsburg, Cincinnati and Elmer Wanbaugh, Dayton. The 20 collectors were reappointed.

James W. Marker of Greensville, former Ohio State university football star, recently appointed chief engineer of the board, will be installed next Monday, succeeding Charles E. Perkins, who will retire after 18 years' continuous service. Members of the board presented the retiring engineer with a handsome mahogany clock and gave a dinner in his honor at the Southern hotel.

OUR CITIZENS AT WORK HOUSE

Bill Kennedy, who was taken to the Cincinnati works Thursday by Chief Davidson, joined the general "gin gang" at the institution. Bill is now repentant and says he has cut out the cup that cheers.

The chief learned while there that Ikey Pyles is not doing so well. Ikey is feeling sick and is longing to get back to that dear Portsmouth.

Virgil Reese, the check forger, has now been there 60 days and Mayor Searey is thinking of ordering his release, as the few weeks yet remaining of his sentence would do him no particular good and his release will mean a few dollars saved for the city.

Moves Like That Comet

Halley's comet hasn't a thing on Billy Doyle, official scout for the St. Louis Browns, when it comes to speed. Thursday Henry Frowine received a letter from him, post marked Ann Arbor, Mich. Within half an hour Mr. Frowine acknowledged receipt of a telegram from Billy at Detroit, and the next mail Thursday brought a post card from the scout, labeled Cleveland. Billy, evidently, is traveling some.

Spencer Is A Hero

According to a letter received from Roy Tracy, Chas Spencer has Rochester by the ears. He states that he was at the game where Ches broke up the contest by his timely hitting. On Wednesday evening he showed Ches the sights of Rochester in his automobile, and horrors of horrors, Ches was accompanied by a pretty Rochester girl. Mr. Tracy closes his letter by saying that if Spencer will keep up his fielding and hitting, Rochester will win the flag in a walk. Mr. Tracy is the son of Deacon Tracy, of this city, and is prospering.

Thought Woman Was Dodging A Summons

A combination of circumstances gave rise to a suspicion that Mrs. Ida Jones, of South Chillicothe street, was trying to avoid summons as a witness in the case of Photographer George Jacobs, of Kentucky picture fame.

When Sheriff Gillen and Deputy Sheriff Eckhart visited the Jones home Thursday evening they found the house deserted. A Times man who happened along about that time, was cautioned by the officers to keep mum. During the afternoon Misses Mary and Bessie Jones, two daughters of the household, had been seen going down town with suit cases, accompanied by their mother. The officers left their subpoena on the front door knob after vainly waiting fo rsome time for the return of Mrs. Jones. It later developed that she and her husband, Nathan Jones, had been spending the evening with their son, Frank Jones, on Third street. During the afternoon they attended the funeral of Mr. Jones' brother, Samuel Jones. The departure of the two daughters had nothing to do with the court summons, for they had merely gone to Lynn, Ky., for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Geuson. Mrs. Jones has done considerable sewing for Frances Rockwell and will probably be a character witness for her.

Closing Days For The Senior Class

Friday all seniors in the Portsmouth high school completed their recitation work and will now prepare for their special examinations to which they to be subjected on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Final estimates were completed for the seniors by the principal Friday afternoon and those being excused from examination in studies for which they have shown an aptitude and a high grade of efficiency, will be announced Monday.

The first dress reheasral for the class play was held at the Grand Thursday afternoon, and that the "Bonths" and "Ellen Terrys" might become accustomed to the fascination of the stage, the footlights were turned on for the first time. The rehearsal went through from beginning to "curtain" with ease and rapidity and the play promises to win for the class of 1910 unlimited success. It is a roaring farce of ingenuity and has been adapted from several famous college comedies by Mr. Walter Gilliland and Mrs. Lena Kline Reed.

Tickets, both for reserve seats and otherwise, have been placed in the hands of the seniors for sale. The prices are to be 25 and 35 cents for the first four rows in the balcony and the first 12 rows on the lower floor of the Grand.

Mrs. Stella Fitch of Boundary street, has as her guest her father, Elias Sellards of Garrison, Ky.

Squire H. Hall Saw Comet 75 Years Ago

Squire Henry Hall witnessed the comet of 1835 and recalls it as a most wonderful phenomentun and likens it to aurora borealis. He was then six years old.

The squire has been closely studying Halley's comet and is particularly interested in the scientific and logical views of a St. Louis astronomer. As the Mound City is nearly directly west of Portsmouth the squire says the following from the Globe-Democrat gives some idea what we may expect hereabouts:

"Rev. Father Martin S. Brennan, professor of astronomy of Kenrick Seminary, said last night that we may expect to see some brilliant illuminations in the heavens, similar to aurora borealis.

"The comet, which has been rising before the sun for the last few weeks, will cross the sun tonight, and from now on will follow the sun and appear in the western horizon after sunset. It will appear Thursday night, but will be so close to the sun that only a portion of its tail will appear above the horizon after the sunlight has faded sufficiently for it to be visible to the naked eye. Friday night, however, the comet will have lost an hour's time in its race with the sun and will be wholly above the horizon after the sun has disappeared. By Saturday night the comet will be two hours above the horizon and will be plainly visible for two hours after sunset. It will be later and later each night, appearing higher and higher in the western heavens until it gets out of range."

Louis Crull Died Suddenly In West

Samuel Crull of 138 Mound street, received a telegram Friday stating that his brother, Louis Crull, died in St. Louis, Mo., Thursday morning at six o'clock. Death was due to rheumatism of the heart, and was sudden.

Louis Crull was born at Lucasville, O., in 1862, and resided at Lima, O., until six months ago when he went to St. Louis to take a position in the Pennsylvania car shops.

Crull leaves a wife and one son in Lima. The body has been shipped to Lima where the funeral will take place Friday under the auspices of the Masons and Odd Fellows, of which Crull was a member.

Roman Soldiers Make Great Hit

The Roman Soldiers of the Portsmouth Tribe of Ben Hur arrived home Thursday noon on the N. & W., after spending four enjoyable days at the meeting of the Supreme Court at Crawfordsville, Indiana.

The soldiers made a big hit with their drills, which were said to be the finest ever give nat a Supreme Court meeting.

Monday evening an exhibition drill was put on at the convention hall; Tuesday afternoon the soldiers attended a reception in a body, and Tuesday night they took part in an initiation. Wednesday afternoon they were taken to the home of General Lew Wallace, where they drilled in the identical library where "Ben Hur" was written.

The Roman Soldiers will put on the same drill at Millbrook Park on Decoration Day. The local court of Ben Hur now numbers over 1100 and is a flourishing organization.

Excited About Comet

Tom Calvert, popular dairyman, is all excitment over Halley's comet and has been losing plenty of sleep in order to get a squint at the celestial visitor. So far he has not seen hide nor hair of it and has about come to the conclusion that the thing has given Portsmouth the go-by. Tom states that in 1858 he saw his first comet and that it had Halley's beaten in forty different ways for size. He states that it extended clear across the skies and was the greatest sight he ever saw. He behold the one in 1882 also, and says if Mr. Halley will only guide his comet this way, he will die happy.

Think of Last Summer--

"You can remember days when the heat inside your kitchen was so great you could hardly bear it. With the right stove you would have made a better hostess. Save your health. Don't put up with the drudgery of a coal range. You can have a clean, cool, pleasant kitchen. The

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME
Oil Cook-stove

does away with all drudgery of cooking. Why should you be a slave to a coal range when, you can have an Oil Cook-Stove that is cheaper than coal, cleaner than coal, doesn't "smell," doesn't smoke, lights instantly, can be put out instantly, leaves no ashes, and doesn't heat the kitchen. With one of these stoves you can boil, bake or roast the most elaborate dinner. You can change from a slow to a quick fire, or the other way about, by simply turning a wick. Apply a match, and instantly the heat from an intense blue flame shoots upward through the turquoise-blue enamel chimneys to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven—but nowhere else. The stove has every convenience that can be thought of: Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping food and dishes hot, drop shelves to hold coffee or teapots, towel rack; in fact every convenience possible.

The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive.

Caution Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

ANOTHER VETO.

Governor Harmon has vetoed an act compelling railroads to redeem all tickets issued by them when presented inside a year from issuance.

No, the veto was not attached to protect the railroad octopuses, but to guard the privileges of the people, who ride on railroads. The measure was but an exposition of the clumsy manner in which legislation is often attempted. The result of it would have been just exactly the opposite of what the author meant to accomplish, making traveling higher, instead of lower. It would have shut off the excursions entirely and been a practical prohibition against roads making lower rates for special occasions. When the attention of the author was directed to its effect, he admitted he had no such intention in offering it and entered no objection to the veto.

It most probably served his purpose. It enabled him to show what a big fight he was making against the corporations and so gain political capital out of it, while the Governor will have to shoulder the responsibility for vetoing it.

These are the days when it is shown to be a good thing to have a good governor.

UP GO HATS.

All the world loves a winner.

Western Democrats, who travel to Washington, or New York, these days are getting their names in the papers and it always on that one eternal subject politics. It may be noted too they all sing the one tune, glory be to the winner.

Each one says sure: That if Gaynor comes forth whole as mayor and he elected governor of York state nothing can stop him from being nominated for president by the Democracy. But on the other hand if Gaynor fail and Harmon be re-elected governor of Ohio then he is as good as nominated. What would happen if all these conditions should occur together, none of these "prominent western leaders in politics and business" suggest, nor do they offer a way as to which light would dawn for the Democracy if none of these things should happen. Perhaps, they think there is no need to, as it is so certain that Harmon will be re-elected if is not worth while to waste words about an impossible contingency.

Huntington's tobacco warehouse company has been chartered with a capital of a hundred thousand dollars. Organization has been effected also and work been put under way so the warehouse may be ready for operation in time to receive this year's crop. It has the start on Portsmouth, but the latter will be doing business in that line too by the time the buying season opens.

True to its name, the Piketon Independent wants an independent ticket in Pike county. Let it get upon such by all means. If there is anything old Pike needs it is revival in her industries and we know of no other industry half so big therein as politics.

May be the prayers of the women of Minnesota and Michigan for rain to stop the forest fires were not heard, but the rain came and the fires are out and that is what was asked.

The insurgents bagged one stand-pat congressman at the primaries. They will get more in November and not far way from here either.

Daniel Webster does not yet know his fate, but he will learn it soon enough to suit him.

A HAPPY MAN.

Blessed is he who asks for much gets. And a man of that sort is as is contented with anything he Taft. No president has ever asked more and got less. In his first message he called upon congress to redeem all the pledges made by the Republican party, but especially that to lower the tariff.

Congress raised the tariff and blithely Mr. Taft rode over the country, at public expense, let it be remembered, telling how glad he felt, that congress had done so well and wisely with the tariff. Later he came forward, not only with suggestions as to railroads, but he approved of draught of a certain bill to regulate them. Both with precipitation jumped at it and began tearing it to pieces until now but shreds of its original provisions remain, but the amiable and placid Mr. Taft is again going jocundly over the land, at public expense also, let it not be forgot, chirruping his entire approval of the shape it is in.

What can you say about a man like that anyway?

We won Wednesday, but what is the use of telling something that everybody knew before hand? There is nothing in the Ohio State league to head us off the way our noble athletes are going.

AT WHAT A COST.

Philo Clark still remains boss of Scioto county and the gang yet holds its grip, though both are considerably battered and bruised, as a result of the sharp encounter of Tuesday.

But while a victory was won it was dearly bought. It exposes as no other contest has the real weakness of the boss. He has lost two of the offices he most coveted and has suffered rude shock in his favorite system of making deputies to name them for places of their chiefs after two terms. It shows that no longer are he, his gang and their methods all powerful with the Republican party. He can still do most with it that he wants, but not all he wants.

Most ominous of all, however, it shows his real weakness. That with all the forces at his command he can not summon a majority of the party nor anything like it too his command. There are over six thousand Republicans in the county and Tuesday he was not able to rally as many as one-third of these to his black banner.

That tells more than anything else what is going to happen to him in November.

It was not a very good day for gangs of any sort anywhere in the state.

A BAD MESS.

Friends of Taft are making a bad matter worse by boisterous defense of his course in the Ballinger matter, instead of maintaining an intense silence. For the more the explanation is made the lamer does it get.

It was unfortunate, yes, it was a gross blunder, that Taft should depute to Assistant Attorney General Lawler of the interior department the preparation of a letter for him, which was to clear Lawler's chief of the department, Ballinger, and that Taft should permit a report to bear earlier date than the letter, although it was not made up until long afterwards, but nothing is gained by saying Taft was ill-advised in the whole matter. He is lord over all in the administration, advice may be called for by him, but he does not have to act upon every foot suggestion made to him, simply because he asks for a twice. His is the power and the duty to say in the finality what he shall do. To ask sympathy for him because "he is the victim of an unfortunate combination of circumstances" gets nothing for him either. The circumstances were not only agreed to by him, but it would seem he was actively and knowingly assisting the creation of them. Pleading the baby act seldom brings a high regard for the pleader.

The Ballinger investigation was conceived with the purpose of acquitting Ballinger and besmirching a half score of others connected prominently with his department. By chance the real defendants in the investigation got hold of a smart lawyer, who, in the slang of the day has made monkeys of Ballinger and the administration and the more the force of the administration and party is brought to bear in behalf of Ballinger the more scandalous does the whole mess grow.

That was a neck and neck race between four of the Democratic candidates for commissioner. It was the kind of voting we like to see, every man picking his own choice without bossism or bundle exerting any influence.

It is the same story, a light vote. Which shows that while the people may have had a consuming appetite for the primary they soon gorged on it.

Primary day brought disappointment to many, but it marks the close of unseasonable weather all will be forgiven.

Only think of it. Two whole days of May without a rain and a cloud hovering about at that.

The Lantz killing on the wall is probably big enough for Boss Clark to see it.

And Lou e Bertard's also name is not among the missing.

Already Democrats are counting victory in the air.

DOLBY'S DOUBLE

The Tired Business Man

Tells Friend Wife Kissing Is Done at the Kisser's Own Risk.

Copyright, 1910, by the New York Evening Telegram, (N. Y. Herald Company.) All rights reserved.

(By WALTER A. SINCLAIR.)

"Those Cincinnati women who have started an anti-kissing campaign evidently didn't read what that Harvard professor said about kissing being perfectly harmless," observed Friend Wife.

"Harmless—except when the girl keeps tally and sues," replied the Tired Business Man. "I never appreciated the value of higher education so much before. When we can get a Harvard professor to give us the scientific assurance that it's perfectly harmless and, in fact quite delectable, there isn't any answer. It's lucky that Harvard isn't a co-educational institution or this lecture would certainly be followed by experiments.

"You probably read that those Cincinnati ladies are going around, each wearing a ribbon on which is 'Kiss Not,' which is a new kind of knot to have on a ribbon. The kiss knot used to be something quite different. I am curious to know what woman must look like who are so fascinating and irresistible that they have to wear labels wearing brash mouths against kissing them.

"And then, again, how are they going to tell when a member of the crusaders breaks her vow? There would be only one other person who knew it, and if he is the kind that runs and tells any girl who would choose that kind ought to be barred from further smackology. Kissers don't choose the most prominent street corner to exchange friendly tokens nor do they hire a hall and audience.

"Of course, there are railroad depots, parks, dark nights and suspicions sounds. But surely the crusaders aren't going around with flash lamps searching for fellow members who have walked over near the flower plots

"MUSHY."

"For several years now we have had to sit mum and listen to some reformer throwing fits because some people kissed. To be sure, they started with Baby, and that had some reason to ill. Baby can't complain or is too polite to raise anything but a muffled roar when some antique relative or friend of the family with a weakness for eating tobacco and stubby whiskers massages the helpless infant' frontispiece and calls it kissing.

"But with grown ups it's different. It's a matter of choice—some not being as choice as others—but still the smacker and smackee or in many cases the two smackers meet beneath the bridges—sure, nose bridges—by mutual esteem. Some esteemier than others. They can take it or leave it or put it back. That is, they can go through the motions of putting it back, but it is never the same kiss. It's just the old form of manufacturing something precious from nothing. And repaying with interest. Only the interest sometimes fails.

"The trouble with the subject is that one can't capture, enclose bottle or imprison kisses. They can't be put in tangible enough shape to be examined and labelled by the government with pure kiss labels, serial number nine billion. If they could I know a lot of wifey lads who'd be working for Doc Wiley as inspectors.

"Kissing is done at the kisser's own risk, Dr. Worthington, of Harvard says the only trouble that may ensue is heart trouble, of course spanking of healthy persons. He says that the two parties to the collision can't break away without upsetting the bacterial balance. It seems a shame to upset the b.b. so often. That's why the tender hearted and mushy hate to break away. I don't think the suggestion to stop crush kissing beneath the heel as well as beneath the toe."

"What toe?" asked Friend Wife, who is "easy."

"Mistletoe," said the Tired Business Man.

The Onlooker.

Something ominous in the remark of Seth Bullock, United States marshal from South Dakota, and scout for the Back from Elba expedition: "Yes, Mr. Taft has made a fine president." So it's all over, eh?

Wife has had her husband, a broker, held as a vagrant. Seems rather severe. In the present disturbed state of the maket a man may have to wander around quite a bit looking for commissions.

Belief is expressed that a burglar band now ravaging Fourteenth street and Eighth avenue, New York, chloroforms its victims before robbing them. Sign of the uplift. If burglars aren't suppressed they will at least make their operations as painless as possible.

Chicago is again calling attention to herself by sending out the story of a resident who is blacksmith, plumber and artist as well. That's nothing. Lots of artists are blacksmiths, just as dentists are carpenters, while some surgeons are butchers and hair dressers plumbers.

London Spectator, in announcing that receding chins are no sign of lack of will or strength of character, no doubt sills with joy the hearts of gentlemen who have been slinking through life with their lower lips serving as a sort of veranda for their Adam's apples.

Man has invented an instrument to eliminate bubbles from champagne, but the killjoy isn't meeting with much favor. What's needed is something to destroy the bubbles the next day.

Notice advice on the correct method of conducting a simple wedding at home. Best way is to put father out in the summer kitchen with a pen, ink and the other accessories and let him smoke his pipe and sign checks. As long as the bank stands for it the rest is easy and can safely be left to mother and the girls.

Baby Ida of Mayor Gaynor's to have the public rule on proper stage performances. Let it be understood as a complete defence for late hours and that there's to be no comeback when a citizen gives his wife the high sign and says, "My dear, I've been not looking for a naughty play, at the request of his honor, the mayor."

SIDELIGHTS ALONG WASHINGTON BYWAYS.

Washington, D. C., Friday, May 20.—In discussing the advocates of the protective policy of the Republican party it is customary to refer to Senator Aldrich and Representative John Dalzell as the highest types of protectionists. As a matter of fact both of these statesmen are fanatics on the subject of downward division of the tariff when compared with Representative Joseph Warren Fordney, of Michigan. Don't talk to Mr. Fordney about letting down the tariff bars or he will accuse you of treason.

Mr. Fordney has never seen and has never heard of a tariff law that was high enough to suit him, and he is sadly coming to the conclusion that he never will. As a member of the ways and means committee which framed the Payne law, he did not discover a single item in the Dingley schedule which in his opinion should have been lowered, but he found that if his views were to prevail a vast majority of them should be increased.

There are many members of the house who began life as poor boys on a farm, and Mr. Fordney is of that number. He is poor no longer, and there is some external evidence of that fact. Mr. Fordney is not what might be called a fastidious dresser, but he has one weakness. He loves diamonds. His immaculate white shirt front is always adorned by a diamond large enough and brilliant enough to light the way along a dark street. Another gem quite as large and brilliant is worn on his left hand.

Being a lumberman, Mr. Fordney's particular hobby in the tariff law is the lumber schedule, and

IT IS THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE WISDOM OF MANKIND AND THE FOLLY OF THE TIMES!
KEEP COOL! THESE GLORIOUS SENTIMENTS SHALL BE LOWERED!
HE BEARS ME AT ENMITY!

what he does not know about the lumber business is not worth knowing. He worked on his father's farm until he was 16 years old. At that age he began to shift for himself, and his first employment was in the woods logging and estimating pine timber. The lumber trade looked good to Mr. Fordney, even at that tender age, and he has been in it ever since, with the result that he is one of the wealthiest men of the house and he owns enough timber to build a small city.

With the passing of the Sixty-first congress there will depart from public life into the quiet of a peaceful old age a man who put up his hard earned money for the salvation of the republic when most members of the house were boys. The man is Representative Nehemish Sperry, of New Haven, Conn. Mr. Sperry is now 83 years old and is voluntarily retiring, after 16 years' continuous service in the house. Managers of Democratic congressional campaigns have long since learned that it is a waste of time, energy and money to attempt to defeat Mr. Sperry for Congress, nothwithstanding the fact that the district he represents is normally Democratic and was regarded as a safe Democratic district before Mr. Sperry decided to come to congress. These same political managers are now breathing a sigh of relief and counting upon restoring the Second Connecticut congressional district to the Democratic column.

Mr. Sperry has been in politics since 1853, at which time he was elected a member of the common council of New Haven. Two years later he was secretary of state. He was a member of the convention that nominated Abraham Lincoln for the presidency, and at one time was secretary of both the national and executive committees.

He was chairman of the recruiting committee during the civil war, and was appointed postmaster at New Haven in 1861 by President Lincoln, which position he held until Grover Cleveland's first term. President Harrison re-appointed him postmaster, but he was again displaced when Cleveland was elected for a second time.

Sperry's chief claim to fame is due to the fact that he was one of the most prominent men in his section of the country in coming to the defence of the government when the civil war broke out, and he was one of the bondsmen for the construction of the historic Monitor.

JANE ADDAMS.

From the day that she first opened the Social Settlement at Hull House, Chicago, in conjunction with her old time school friend, Miss Ellen Gates Starr the name of Jane Addams has held a conspicuous place in the rank of modern philanthropists. In reality Miss Addams' altruistic work began long before that time, and during quiet years she was solving her own life problem and preparing herself for the task which she has since so nobly maintained.

Jane Addams is the daughter of the Hon. John H. Addams and was born at Cedarville, Illinois, September 6, 1860. Twenty-one years later she graduated from Rockford College. Then followed a winter in the Woman's Medical College, at Philadelphia, culminating in spinal difficulty, which had threatened her from childhood, and the late spring found Miss Addams an invalid. Through the following winter her health was still too precarious to follow the arduous training for the life of a physician, which was presently abandoned, merely as a means to an end. The long illness left me in a state of nervous exhaustion with which I struggled for years, traces of it remaining long after Hull House was opened in 1889. At the best it allowed me but a limited amount of energy, so that doubtless there was much nervous depression at the foundation of the spiritual struggles which this article is forced to record. However, ill health was not solely responsible for these struggles, for as my commonplace book sententiously remarked, 'In his own way each man must struggle, lest the moral law become a far-off abstraction utterly separated from his active life.' That Miss Addams has met that struggle and conquered it is shown by her work at Hull House, and her broad humanitarian labors. She is an effective writer and lecturer on sociological and political subjects, and two of her books, "Democracy and Social Ethics," and "New Ideals of Peace," are helpful to earnest thinkers on present day themes.

European travel. This was a most valuable period, since it helped to broaden and deepen the culture acquired in her college days, and to awaken the humanistic impulses which have resulted in such notable achievement. As she says in her autobiographical notes in the American magazine: "Before I had returned to America I had discovered that there were other genuine reasons for living among the poor than that of practising medicine upon them, and my brief foray into the profession was never resumed, having been undertaken from the first

"They have laid traps for Colonel Roosevelt in every capital in Europe, trying to make him forget that he is only a private citizen," says Gifford Pinchot, "but he is too cute for them." Holy smoke! When that "cute" thing meets the eye of the colonel we will get another Othello stunt: "I love you, Cecil, but never more be officer of mine."

MAGIC RING $3

Is the Title of a Booklet Describing a Finger Ring in which Avs. Admiral Dewey, a Number of Prominent Practising Physicians and other Notables are Interested.

RHEUMATISM CURED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

What this Ring has Done for Others It Will Do for You.

In this booklet is described a ring that has won the name of "Magic Ring" simply because the effects it produces seem so marvelous as to border on the realms of magic.

Otherwise it lays no claim to magic powers. On the contrary it is made in accordance with demonstrated scientific rules, and the results that seem so magical are the direct and natural outcome of the laws of science on which its construction is based.

The seemingly magic power of this ring is at once brought to bear upon any excess of uric acid in the blood, ridding the system of this excess and thus effecting speedy and permanent cure of any of the diseases caused by uric acid, most prominent of which is rheumatism.

The "Magic Ring" has cured nine out of every ten victims of rheumatism who have tried it. If it did not do this it would not pay us to publish this advertisement day after day in this newspaper.

If, after a fair trial of the "Magic Ring" your doctor certifies that you have not been benefited by it we will cheerfully refund the money you have paid us for it.

We would not be allowed to publish the following testimonials unless they were true:

Mrs. George H. Dewey, wife of the hero of Manila Bay, writes from her home, No. 1747 Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D. C.:

"Please send me a ring of the size enclosed, by Adams Express, at your earliest convenience.

Very truly,
M. Dewey."

From North Grafton, Mass., comes this message:

"My Dear Sir:
We are all out of the little enclosed slips.

"Are you willing to send a further supply?

"The young man is again on his feet and free from pain.

Sincerely,
Rev. C. E. O. Nichols."

This is another order:

"Office of Edw. H. Webb, D.D.S.
741 Grand Street,
Jersey City, N. J.

Dear Sir:
Kindly forward me one of your magic rings which has been recommended to me by Dr. Webb.

Enclosed you will find amount required, also size of ring.

Mrs. Blair.
741 Grand Street,
Jersey City, N. J."

A prominent practising physician who has tested the 'Magic Rings,' writes as follows:

"Office of Lamson Allen, M.D.
20 Elm Street,
Worcester, Mass.
Sept. 25, 1909.

Dear Sir:
Please send me two rings of size enclosed patterns, and herewith find check for same.

Yours truly,
Lamson Allen."

In ordering a ring to be sent to the Mother Superior, St. de Chantal Academy, Elm Dale, Springfield, Mass. Sister Frances writes:

"I heard of the ring from a Jesuit priest, but I hesitated to give its name without his consent. I am going to [illegible] other religous community and [illegible] any sufferers will mention the ring. I am glad to know it has benefited so many."

There are many other testimonials to the value of the magic ring [illegible] men in all walks of life, physicians, lawyers, business men.

The ring is composed of an [illegible] of metals. As soon as it [illegible] in contact with the heat and moisture of the skin it generates a current of galvanic electricity which reduces the uric acid from a crystal to a liquid form and draws it out on the skin under the ring, causing the finger to look as though painted with iodine.

When there is no more uric acid in the blood there will be no more mark on the finger until more is generated.

By continuing to wear the ring [illegible] are cured it will absorb [illegible] fast as it is generated, thus preventing a return of the disease.

The ring should not be [illegible] side until it is bright, once [illegible] day, with emery cloth and [illegible] stains washed from the finger. It should be worn on the left hand and should be close.

In ordering the above ring send exact size, enclose $3.00 in registered letter, or post-office money order for that sum, and address:

M. A. MARTIN,
45 So. Walnut St.,
East Orange, N. J.

BUY STERLING SILVERWARE

Twenty years ago a dozen plated tea spoons cost five or six dollars. To-day a dozen sterling silver spoons can be bought for only a few dollars more. The intrinsic value of the metal is worth more than the difference in price.

Many use plated silver on their table as a matter of custom. Years ago when sterling ware was sold at prohibitive prices nearly everyone used plated ware at least every day. To-day it is real economy to buy the best, even for daily use.

You can buy a whole outfit of table ware in sterling silver, including six each knives, forks and spoons of all sizes, for less than forty dollars. The following list will give you some idea of the low cost of sterling silverware today:

Knives, per set, $9.60 up; Forks, per set, $7.25 up; Soup Spoons, per set, $7.25 up; Table Spoons, per set, $11.00 up; Tea Spoons, per set, $3.50 up; Oyster Forks, per set, $4.50 up; Salad Forks, per set, $7.50 up; Butter Spreaders, per set, $7.50 up; Serving Pieces, from $1.00 upward.

Call and see our plain and elaborate patterns of sterling silver, and start collecting an outfit by buying a few pieces at a time.

Woman Is Burned

Mrs. William Vaughn was painfully burned while preparing supper at her home on Jefferson street Thursday evening. Both Mrs. Vaughn and husband work in a shoe factory. Upon their return she made hasty preparations for baking hot biscuits. Somehow she turned on the gas without lighting the burner and when later she started to remove the biscuits an explosion followed. She was burned about the face, arms and eyes. The oven door was hurled against the opposite wall and biscuits scattered in every direction.

Here Is A Booster For The Peerless

Albert Worster has taken front rank as a booster of Peerless Portsmouth. Every series of envelopes used by the Tracy Shoe company contains some printed data advertising the city and its diversified industries. The latest series was given especial attention by the popular bookkeeper and he has featured Portsmouth's products. After exploiting its quality of shoes, brick, steel, stoves and the like, Al winds up his best in his catchy style: "Furniture for the home, rims and tires for automobiles and cereals for the table." Thousands of the envelopes will reach every part of the country and other Portsmouth boosters would do well to follow the example set by the above enterprising firm.

Has Ordered 40 Wagons

This Free Remedy Helps Sickly Babies

Babies and children suffer mostly from the stomach. There is something wrong with the milk or with the eggs or with the minor articles of food, for it doesn't take much to disturb a child's stomach. One thing the mother can always be sure of and that is that no harm can come from giving a small dose of a mild laxative, for it is sure to be better off for it. You know your own feeling of lightness and ease when that function has been performed, so how much more important is it to the child?

Watch carefully that your child does not become constipated, for if it does not have at least one or two movements of the bowels each day it is constipated. From constipation comes headache, a feeling of oppression, bad breath, nausea, sour stomach, etc. In these troubles you can obtain nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Give it in the small doses prescribed for children and watch the sickly child become healthy and well, full of appetite and energy.

Mothers all over this country have been using this remedy for a quarter of a century and many heads of families like Mr. C. L. Lynch of Billingsley, Ala., and Mrs. Amanda Black of Lapeer, O., would not keep house without it. They have lots ago discarded tablets, pills, salts and such things for the milder, more gentle and more effective Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which every member of the family, from the youngest to the oldest, can use with safety. It is in the homes of more families today than any other laxative, but if you have never used it Dr. Caldwell urges you to send him your name and address and he will send you a sample bottle free of charge. If its use convinces you that it is the remedy you have been looking for then buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Just as so many others are doing.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. Just the above sample, simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 1 S10 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Summer Play Aprons For Small Children

Even mud pies might seem glorified if made in such pinafores—cool and breezy as to neck and sleeves or rather lack of sleeves, and with fascinating Mother Goose and Kate Greenaway pictures on the front. Big pockets, too, in which to stow away chocolate creams, pebbles, hop toads and other special treasures of the day.

Another kind of apron, of blue linen, with guy red and blue Russian embroidery and a chatelaine pocket bag is delightful. A design, more dressy, with ruffle at the foot and ribbon ties over the shoulder, will be liked by small maids.

SOCIETY

The Omaha Sunday Bee of May 15th, contained the following notice:

"Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olmsted announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Olmstead, to Mr. Bentley Grimes McCloud of Chicago. The wedding will take place in the autumn. The engagement does not come as a surprise to the many friends of the bride, who regret that her marriage will take her to another city to reside."

The announcement is of much interest here, Mr. Bentley McCloud having been born and reared in this city. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. McCloud, for many years residents of Portsmouth, but now residing at Kenilworth, a suburb of Chicago.

The groom-to-be has been in the employ of the First National bank of Chicago, for some years and his promotion has been rapid, he now being one of the receiving tellers of the big bank. Many friends will extend congratulations and good wishes.

Miss Margaret Sellards who is ill in bed, is reported as not improving.

Mrs. Oscar Wilkins will be the host at the June 8th meeting of District No. 3 of the Second Presbyterian Aid Society.

Miss Amanda Cutler of East Ninth entertained at dinner recently, Mrs. Oletha Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Johnson and guest, Mrs. Frank Le Page of Cleveland.

First Baptist choir gave a musical on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sowers of Lincoln Hill. The program follows:

Anthem, choir.
Reading, Anderson Cook.
Vocal duet, Mrs. Harry Ball, Miss Myrle Sowers.
Sextett, pupils of Miss Mattie Lynn's school.
Violin solo, Mr. Lee Wartonck.
Piano accompaniment, Miss M. Sowers.
Vocal solo, Mr. Fred Simpson, choir leader.
Cornet solo, Mr Fred Arrizone.
Reading, Marjorie Gerlach.
Piano duet, Miss M. Sowers and niece, Little Fern Curry Wheeler.
Vocal solo, Miss Mattie Lynn.
Reading, Pauline Armentrut.
Violin solo, Mrs. Sigmund Haas.
Piano accompaniment, Mrs. H. Ball.
Vocal Solo, Miss Alma McIler.
Piano Solo, Mrs. Joseph Crevelling.

About $700 was the amount realized.

The Civic Improvement Committee met at the home of the chairman Mrs. Samuel Horchow on Thursday afternoon and appointed Mr. George Appel, Mr. G. D. Scudder and Mr. Alan Jordan to assist Mayor H. C. Searcy and Superintendent Frank Appel, as purchasing committee for the equipment of the much talked of children's play grounds. A full attendance is desired at next Wednesday afternoon's meeting of the Civic committee at the home of Mrs. Horchow.

The last of May Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Benjamin and family will move to Cincinnati where Mr. Benjamin will engage in the Trunk Manufacturing business with relatives including Mrs. Benjamin's father.

Mrs. James Armstrong who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Boring of High street, during the illness of the Boring children has returned to her home on Monroe street, where her daughter, Mrs. Claude Dudley has been keeping house during her mother's enforced absence.

Wright's Saxophone orchestra will furnish the music for the Denizen club's dance, May 25th.

On Thursday evening at Five Mile church, a social took place, the financial result being over $15.00.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Caskey's visitors, Mrs. Arthur Glasgow and daughter, Miss Anna of North Liberty were guests of honor in an Orpheum party, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Brown, who are spending a few weeks in Washington, D. C., where they will attend the World's Sunday school convention.

Mr. C. E. Brown's sick father, Mr. Henry Brown of Piketon, is reported as better.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Prescott entertained at dinner the following friends, Mesdames M. Recker, Lizzie Young, Oletha Lloyd, Mrs F. L. Johnson and guest, Mrs. Frank Le Page of Cleveland in celebration of Mr. Prescott's 70th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Capehart have as guests Mrs. Minnie Buckway and two children of Huntington, W. Va., on their way to Cincinnati to visit friends.

Mrs. Guy Thompson was host at Friday afternoon's meeting of the Young Women's Sewing club.

The old Terry homestead on East Second was beautifully decorated with various spring flowers and the scene of an unusually pretty little party Thursday afternoon, when Miss Alice Terry, locally famous as "Yum Yum," entertained in auto nuptial honor to Miss Dosia Evans who in June will be wedded to Mr. John Cody of Keokuk, Iowa. The guests at the party were the members of S. S. S. and a few others of the close bride's special girl friends. The occasion was a kensington and miscellaneous gift shower, the gifts being presented in a large basket which was entirely covered with north orange blossoms and north French china bon bon dish.

Excellent refreshments of yellow and white ices, cake, bon bons with coffee and salted almonds, were served at the card tables.

Mrs. Charles Daehler and her daughter, Miss Bess, Mrs. Oscar Wilhelm and Mrs. Charles Wilhelm assisted in the hospitalities.

Mrs. Charles Smith's Trinity Sunday school class entertained with a variety social Thursday evening at the church. The program follows:

Vocal solo, Miss Alma Davis.
Reading, Mrs. W. E. Gault.
Vocal solo, Rev. A. B. Enyart.
Barnyard impersonator, Mr. Harry Porter.
Vocal solo, Mrs. Edson Tener.
Play, "Her Old Sweethearts."

The participants were Miss Ada Hitchcock, the bride; Mr. Willard Gustin, the groom; Messrs. George Bvence, Russell McCurdy, C. M. Smith, Edson Tener, Everett Wykoff, Russell Stockham, Ralph Loft and Spencer Singleton.

Refreshments followed the program. $30.00 was the financial result.

Mrs. Charles Warnock of East Eighth, was host at this week's meeting of the Nimble Thimble club with Miss Virgie Thomas as special guest, Mrs. Oscar Donaldson will be host at the next meeting, June the 1st.

The Modern Priscilla will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John G. Dillon.

Mrs. Frank Kendall and children, have as week end guest at Happy Hours, their outing place Miss Vesta Stockham, a cousin of Mrs. Kendall.

Mrs. Anna Ferguson of Ashland, Ky., who has been visiting relatives here is now visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gleim of Wheelersburg.

Mrs. Richard Alger writes of safe arrival at her new home in Chattanooga, Tenn., where Mr. Alger recently located in business.

On Thursday evening Central Presbyterian Union of Workers, gave a delightful social at the home of Mrs. Philip Reeg of No. 430 East Eleventh, where about sixteen dollars was the financial result. Music enlivened the occasion. Ice cream and cake were the refreshments on sale.

Miss Alice Crissman was host at Thursday evening's meeting of Mrs. W. H. Schwartz First Presbyterian Sunday school class.

Miss Nellie Hudson of Fifth avenue was host at Thursday evening of Frances Badger Guild a business session followed by a social hour over refreshments.

Miss Katharine Newman is in Cincinnati to remain until Sunday as guest of her grandmother Mrs. A. C. Thompson.

Mrs. Howard Sellards' home on Offnere street was the scene of a Kensington, on Thursday afternoon, under the auspices of Trinity W. H. M. S. where about seventy was the number present. SAYS TRAINS ARE NEVER ON TIME

Judge A. Z. Blair, who recently returned from a trip through the West, tells an interesting story in regard to the slowness of western trains.

According to the judge, trains are rarely on time on many of the railroads, sometimes being two or three days late. Judge Blair traveled considerably over the Texas and Rio Grande and says that in one station he saw the following notice: "Train No. 60 on time. No reasons given."

The Crusader's Tunic Frock

The long tunic, falling below the knees, called the Crusader tunic is now the favorite of the French couturiers.

These tunics are cut to give a broad and easy line across the shoulders and are belted in at the waistline with little effort to make the wearer look either trim or slender.

The tunic shown is of cross-barred fondard voile, one of the beautiful new silk weaves of the season, and is mounted over a petticoat of plain colored satin; satin trimmings appearing also on the tunic.

The hat is a summer model of black crin, trimmed with green and red cherries and a large bow of vivid red ribbon.

Planning For Play Grounds

A meeting of the Civic Improvement association was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Horchow Thursday afternoon.

The meeting was largely attended by the members, including Mayor Searcy and Prof. Frank Appel, who were named as a committee together with Messrs. Geo. M. Appel, Alan Jordan and G. D. Scudder to select and purchase the necessary equipment for the playgrounds. The committee will get busy at once and expect to have the equipment here by next week, when the first active work will be commenced in fitting the playgrounds. The last sale and private contributions to date also brought in the sum of about $660.

ATTENTION, K. OF P.

NEGRO HIT BY N. & W. TRAIN

George Edwards, a negro employe of the N. & W. who was struck by a freight train beyond Williamson, W. Va., Thursday afternoon, was brought to this city suffering with internal injuries that will likely prove fatal.

Edwards belonged to a track-laying gang and had gone ahead of the force to flag a fast westbound train. He had seated himself on an eastbound track when a train shot around a sharp curve.

Edwards became bewildered at the sight of the train bearing down upon him and before he could jump the engine struck him hurling him quite a distance.

He was brought to Portsmouth and taken to Hempstead hospital, where an examination showed his back was broken. His home is in Stoneville, North Carolina.

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Portsmouth People.

We [illegible] so fortunate indeed to be [illegible]ed by the experience of [illegible]rs. The public utterance of Portsmouth residents on this subject will interest hundreds of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Paul [illegible]gold, 214 Washington street, Portsmouth, Ohio, says: "I would not be without a box of Doan's Kidney Pills in the house. When I first used this remedy several years ago, I was almost down and out with kidney trouble. I could not do any hard work on account of the constant pain across the small of my back and I felt miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Fisher & Streich's drug store, gave me the first relief I had ever received, and I was so well pleased that I gave a statement for publication, telling of their great merit. At this time I am glad to confirm my testimonial and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills again."

INDIGESTION GOES

Wurster Bros. Sell Best Prescription on Earth on the Money Back Plan.

Almost everybody knows that sick headache, nervousness and dizziness, are caused by a disordered stomach.

Upset stomach and indigestion happen just because the food you eat does not digest—but lies in the stomach and ferments and turns sour.

You can stop fermentation and stomach distress in five minutes by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets, a prescription that has done more to cure indigestion and put the stomach in fine condition than all the specialists on earth.

A large 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is all you need to get quick and lasting relief.

Mrs. Altie Eison, of 93 Dun Road, Battle Creek, Mich., used MI-O-NA and within two months was in as good health as ever, and has a strong stomach and eats anything she likes. She attributes her present good health to the use of MI-O-NA.

If you have heartburn, belching of gas, heaviness or any stomach trouble, no matter how chronic, try Mi-o-na stomach tablets on money back plan. Sold by druggists everywhere, and by Wurster Bros., who guarantee them.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

N. & W. CLERKS STRIK... HAS BEEN CALLED OFF

BULLETIN

At 4:30 a wire was received by the local clerks union from General Chairman Forester for the clerks to report for work in the morning.

Terms of settlement are not known to clerks here but they will return to work in the morning.

The most important development of the day in the N. & W. clerks' strike was a persistent report to the effect that same had been declared off.

The report was doubted all day by local clerks, failing as they did to verify same up to the middle of the afternoon, but it was promptly given credence by company officials.

At division headquarters it was stated at 3 p. m. that the official messages were going through to secretaries of locals at Portsmouth, Idlewild and Columbus. They contained the signatures of M. T. Harper of Bristol, Tenn., general chairman of the Brotherhood, who is at Roanoke. The messages notified the locals that the strike had been declared off and ordered their men to resume service immediately, it was stated.

Local members of the union though inclined to discredit the reports expected some definite word from Roanoke on train No. 15.

Company officials attributed the order terminating the strike to the fact that not nearly as many clerks went out as claimed and that Brotherhood officers realizing the walk-out had not become effective concluded to make the best of the situation and save as many as possible their positions.

It was reported here Friday that the clerks at Williamson and Vivian, W. Va., had returned to work, but the rumor could not be verified.

Denial was made that General Superintendent George P. Johnson had agreed to a conference with the clerks' committee here Friday evening. It was said that as many of the old employees would be taken back as could be taken care of but the most important positions or the plums had been filled. Men from the general offices at Roanoke have been sent here and to other points to take temporary positions but eight will arrive here Saturday to take permanent positions. The company has a new timekeeper, new head of the maintenance of way department and other places have also been filled. Two clerks belonging to the union returned to work Friday morning. As the freight house places have been filled and though work has been confined to handling transfer shipments here and the temporary force is swamped, conditions are improving. Silas Hoover, the crew dispatcher, whom the clerks vainly tried to win over is helping out the local freight office force. All told it is claimed by the company that 50 per cent of the places have been filled.

The clerks met with committees of the Boilermakers' and Carmen's unions Thursday night but had nothing to give out for publication regarding the conference. A meeting of the strikers was held at Central Labor council hall Friday afternoon to discuss the news from Roanoke. Until the reports had been heard the feeling was that the situation was becoming critical and that there was imminent danger of other branches of the service becoming involved.

The Clerks warmly appreciate an offer from J. P. Potts of the use of his Airdome for holding meetings and to attend performances there free of charge. David Thomas also notified the men they would be admitted free of charge to his nickleodeon and was willing to give a benefit for them, for which they feel deeply grateful.

W. T. Davant, of the N. & W. signal department, is one of the men here to help out in the local offices temporarily. Quite a number of other officials were here from Roanoke viewing the situation, including General Storekeeper H. Satchard, Assistant Motive Power Superintendent A. Kearney, Master Boilermaker J. A. Darnberger. The sudden ending of the strike, if true, means, according to company officials, that the Clerks' Brotherhood will not be recognized.

STEAL BEER FROM AN N. & W. BOX CAR

On Friday afternoon N. & W. Detective Ketter arrested John Heffron and one other person whose name could not be learned on charges of breaking open a box car in the N. & W. yards Friday morning, securing two cases of beer, and, which, it is said, was promptly put to use. Detective Ketter found Heffron in the East End and lodged him in the county jail. He then located Heffron's partner in the alleged crime and the two will have their hearing before Squire Byron Saturday. It is said a third party was concerned in the robbery.

"Time's Flight Turned Backward"

SAGE AND SULPHUR

Made Her look Twenty Years Younger

READ MRS. HERRICK'S SWORN STATEMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss. Rochester, N. Y.
County of Monroe }

Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a school girl I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair, that was so plentiful, rich and glossy, that it was the envy of many of my young schoolmates, and attracted the attention and remarks of strangers. After I was married and as I grew older, my hair commenced to come out just a little at first, but gradually as time passed it came out more and more, and began to turn gray. I was induced by many good reports heard of Sage and Sulphur, to try a bottle. My hair was quite gray and thin on top when I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and you may imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, becoming thicker, darker, smoother and glossier than it had been for a long time. I continued the use of Sage and Sulphur and my hair is now in a splendid condition, as heavy and as dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. From my experience I believe it is one's own fault if they lose their hair, or let it get gray or harsh. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and still use it, and my hair still keeps thick, dark, smooth and glossy.

S. S. S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

Lying just beneath the outer covering or tissue-skin, is a sensitive membranous flesh in which are imbedded thousands of small blood vessels. It is through these tiny veins and arteries that nutriment is supplied from the blood to the different pores, glands and lymphatics. Thus the skin is kept healthy, and free from all eruption or disease, by pure blood. But when impurities and humors infect the circulation its nourishing properties are diminished and instead of supplying the skin with healthful properties it constantly irritates and diseases the delicate fibres, pores and glands with sharp uratic matter. Then the skin tissues inflame, swell and ulcerate and some form of skin disease appears on the surface. Applying soothing lotions, salves, etc., to the outer eruptions does not purify the blood and therefore the skin trouble can not be cured in this manner. S. S. S. cures all skin diseases by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. It cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and inflamed by sour impurities is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S. S. S. Cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Poison Oak, boils, pimples, rashes, etc. Book on Skin Diseases free to all who write.

The Opening of The Hansen Furniture Company

FROM 7 TO 10 EVENING
87-99-101-103 W. SECOND ST.
PORTSMOUTH, OHIO.

Tonight, May Twentieth, Nineteen Hundred and Ten

MUSIC BY RIVER CITY BAND.
CARNATIONS TO THE LADIES.

A FINE OPENING OF HANSEN CO.

Although the rain interfered with the plans to some extent and kept many people away, the grand opening of the Hansen Furniture Company in its fine new quarters added in the Damarin Building Friday afternoon was a splendid success.

Many people visited the store and inspected the rooms and stock, which certainly looked beautiful. The rooms have all been repainted throughout and everything is spick and span. The rooms are brilliantly lighted and everything is a picture of splendor. The grand display of furniture equals anything ever shown in Portsmouth, and a feature that attracted much attention was the parlor, sitting room, den and kitchen, each fitted up with its own different style of furniture.

Music was discoursed throughout the afternoon by Bode's Orchestra, and carnations in abundance were there free to every lady visitor. Several Huntington manufacturers were down to witness the opening, and they were equally disappointed with the management on account of the rain.

The River City band will play at the store tonight, when a great crowd is expected.

Property Is Sold

Attorney C. S. Miller, trustee in bankruptcy in the bankruptcy case of John C. Montavon, sold at public sale the three pieces of property on Fifth street cornering on Court, Friday afternoon, to G. F. Simons for $4,625. Each piece was first put up for sale separately. The ten room house and lot appraised at $3300 was bid in by Photographer H. B. Williams for $3110. The middle lot, appraised at $800, was bid in by Fisher and Erth for $700. The corner brick house and lot, appraised at 800, was bid in by G. F. Simon for $800.

The three pieces were then put up together and sold to G. F. Simon for $4625, or $15 more than the aggregate sum of the three separate bids. The whole property was appraised at $4960.

May Open A Drug Store

It is rumored that Halsey Hastings will shortly open up a drug store at Sciotoville. Mr. Hastings could not be located and he report is given for what it is worth. In connection with this report it is also said that a Manchester druggist will open up a pharmaceutical shop in that village.

Depot Is Robbed

Word reached here Friday that robbers had entered the N. & W. depot at Wakefield early Friday morning, and broken open every box of freight in the baggage room, as well as scattering about many official papers. Just what the robbers secured could not be learned. Detective Ketter has been called to go to work on the case. Local talent is suspected.

Relative Is Dead

Mrs. Orpha Harek, of East Ninth street, received word Friday that her brother-in-law, Henry Harek, had died Thursday night at Dalton, N. Y. Further details are not known.

Mrs. Edward Armacost returned Friday from West Union where she has been spending the past four weeks.

John Ham of Rowan county, Ky., is visiting his uncle, William Ham of West Front street.

The case of the state against George Jacobs, Chillicothe street photographer, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Frances Rockwell and Vevia Elliott was called in probate court Friday afternoon. Jacobs, it will be remembered, was the photographer that developed the pictures, taken over in the Kenturky hills some time ago and which have created so much local comment.

Immediately after the case was called and before the jury was impannelled, Attorney Theodore K. Funk argued a demurrer to the affidavits and filed a motion to quash on the grounds that the court did not have jurisdiction in the case and that the charges made in the affidavit did not constitute an offense in the state of Ohio.

Mr. Funk argued for an hour and a half using very forcible language and at times growing exceedingly eloquent. He dwelt longest on the contention that the developing of the pictures was not contributing directly to the delinquency of the girls.

Prosecutor Moulton used about ten minutes in answering the argument of Mr. Funk. The prosecutor then, upon direction of the court, rested to draw up written information on which to base the affidavits as none had been so furnished and as this was one of the grounds upon which Mr. Funk attacked the validity of the affidavits. Defendant's attorney objected but the objections were overruled.

The court overruled the demurrer and the motion to quash to which defendant's counsel objected and took exceptions. The court in ruling on the demurrer stated that he was unfamiliar with the statute under which the affidavits were drawn. Mr. Funk then asked for a continuance of the case as it would take some time for the judge to study it and pass upon the information that was to be presented. State's attorney Moulton presented the information and after consulting with the court they were handed to Mr. Funk. He objected to the filing of the information as well as to its contents. The court then continued the case until June 3 at one o'clock or after the circuit court had passed upon the case of Frances Rockwell which will be done at Chillicothe June 2nd.

The jury was instructed to report on the day set.

ARCHITECT WAS HERE

Architect Pretzinger, of Dayton, was in the city for a short while Thursday and stated to the board of education that he was working almost night and day on the plans an specifications for the new high school building. He says he almost swamped with work and has had to turn considerable away. He expects to have the plans finished by the first week in June when bids will be asked for.

Mr. Pretzinger went from here to Lucasville to confer with the board of education of that village as they expect to build a $20,000 high school building the coming summer and fall.

WALKER WAS BOUND OVER

Frank Walker was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $100 by Squire Hall Friday afternoon for alleged assaulting Oscar Rickey.

Walker pleaded not guilty. Rickey and a number of witnesses including Dr. W. W. Smith, testified. The evidence showed Walker had struck the former detective with a club several times while he made no attempt to fight back. Walker was released on his own recognizance.

Is to Erect New Home

J. A. Huffman Friday bought a lot of Lincoln Poole, on Eighteenth street, consideration $600. The deal was made through Evans & Jordan Realty Co.

Bartender Mack Montgomery returned to Cincinnati Friday after a brief visit with homefolks.

HERZOG'S BRIDE RESIGNED HER POSITION

Friday's Cincinnati Enquirer said: "The resignation of Miss Lizzie Wolf, 569 Richmond street, as secretary of the Cincinnati Dental college, revealed her marriage to Mr. Sydney Herzog, a shoemaker, on last Thanksgiving day.

"Miss Wolf was anxious to complete her 12 years of service at the college, but Herzog was insistent, and, finally, she consented to become his bride on condition that they would keep it a secret until the close of the school year.

"So well did they keep the secret that even the members of Miss Wolf's family were not given an inkling until a month ago, and the students at the college never supposed for a moment a bride was in their midst."

The groom is a former Portsmouth resident. The wedding was recently mentioned in the Times.

Daniel Renshaw, the N. & W. brakeman who had his foot crushed Wednesday by a work train, is steadily improving at Hempstead hospital.

Malavazos Bros. received a carload of pool tables Friday for their Millbrook park pavilion.

CLERKS OFFERED TO ARBITRATE TROUBLE

Discussing the clerks strike on the N. & W., the Bluefield Telegraph of Thursday morning said that the following letter was sent by messenger but up to Thursday no answer had been received:

Roanoke, Va., May 18, 1910.

Mr. L. E. Johnson, President N. & W. Ry., Roanoke, Va.,

Gentlemen: The clerks' committee very much regrets the situation that has developed, but feels that it has been forced upon them by the attitude of the management in refusing to meet them and the actions of some agents, yardmasters and others in a semi-officially capacity in their efforts to influence and intimidate the clerks.

We stand where we did prior to 2:30 p. m. yesterday and are ready and willing to meet the management upon the propositions presented and are writing you to make our position on that point clear.

We also stand ready to submit this controversy to a disinterested tribunal of citizens for arbitration.

It is not our desire to continue this fight and if the company is willing to meet our committee, we stand ready to do our part to end this controversy which we know is detrimental to the interests of all concerned but our men will not agree to return to work unless the company will meet their committee and treat with them, in the same manner it has treated with employes in every other department. Trust we may be able to reach an understanding that will be satisfactory to both parties, we are,

Very respectfully yours,
Clerks General Committee.
M. G. HARPER, Chairman.

The Number Out.

The Roanoke World says that at the general headquarters of the strikers the following figures were given out:

Pocahontas Division: Out of a total of 203 clerks, 186 are out.

Shenandoah Division: Out of a total of 41 clerks, 33 are out.

Scioto Valley Division: Out of a total of 216 clerks, 167 are out.

Radford Division: Out of a total of 196 clerks, 156 are out.

Norfolk Division: Out of a total of 153 clerks, 61 are out.

Out of a grand total of 809 there are 503 men who have quit work.

These figures were given out to a World man by Mr. Forrester and represent the side of the strike question from the viewpoint of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

The men stated the strike situation was entirely satisfactory to them.

The Company's Reason.

Briefly stated, the company's reasons for not granting the demands of the clerks are as follows:

First—The position of the clerks in the service of the various departments of this company is necessarily different from that occupied by men engaged in the departments in which working agreements exist. Every department of the company requires clerical aid which is essentially different in its character from the same class of aid which is needed in other departments, and, after careful reflection, the company has not been able to see how the services in the clerical force is concerned or can be adjusted whereby a working agreement could be made applicable to the clerks in the different departments.

Second—Under these circumstances, it is essential to the proper conduct of the affairs of the company that the heads of the respective departments shall establish the rules and regulations which shall govern the duties of the clerks so employed. This has been the system under which the company has operated since its organization.

Third—In most of its relations, the position of clerk is necessarily a confidential one, in which efficiency is determined by many standards and these can not be successfully reduced to the terms of a working agreement. It also involves the question of close personal relations which is unmixed, leads to disastrous results in the efficiency of the service.

Fourth—The clerks of this company are employed under such conditions of service and living so dissimilar, that an agreement suitable for one condition or branch of the service would be unwise and unjust in its application to other places and other classes of service.

Fifth—The lack of continuous service in this branch of work makes it impossible to look forward to that continuity of service which is essential to the successful operation of a working agreement.

While the above, as well as other considerations have made it impossible for the management to accede to the requests of its clerks, yet it is its desire that the clerks be assured of the appreciation of the company of their loyal service, which it feels has been recognized in the past in according to them the same liberality in the matter of working conditions and rates of pay which are granted to those employed in other branches of the service, and this policy will be continued.

In the matter of individual grievance, right of appeal to the higher officers of the company has always been accorded, and will continue to be recognized.

FOUND SOMETHING TO CURE ECZEMA

Trial Results in Complete Cure of Fifteen-Year Case in Two Weeks.

In a letter published in his lodge paper, Mr. F. O. Thompson, of Elizabeth, N. J., states that he was a sufferer from eczema for fifteen years, and one day spoke about his trouble to Dr. L. E. Todd. "Dr. Todd replied that he had something that would relieve if not permanently cure me," say Mr. Thompson, "but after treatment for so many years I had grave doubts. The doctor produced a box of poslam, and I promised to give it a faithful trial. I followed directions, and in two weeks' time find myself entirely cured. The fifty cents I paid for the box was the best investment I ever made."

Not alone eczema, but every surface skin disease is permanently eradicated by poslam, itching being stopped at once.

Write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for a free trial package of poslam. With sample alone complexions may be cleared and pimples banished from the face.

Amann's Pharmacies, as well as all good druggists everywhere, always carry poslam in the regular sizes at 50 cents and $2.

C. & O. ENGINES CONSUME SMOKE

According to Master Mechanic W. T. Smith, all C. & O. engines, freight and passenger, have been equipped with new patent devices for the consumption of smoke.

To a committee of citizens working in the interests of the anti-smoke movement in Cincinnati, Mr. Smith declared that the engines would no longer smoke in excess as far as the company is concerned.

It being possible for the firemen and engineers to abolish the smoke nuisance with the aid of the new device, the C. & O. railway will take no hand in the defense of an engine crew arrested on excessive smoke charges.

DEGREE TEAM GOING TO OTWAY

The degree team of Magnolia K. of P. lodge, will go to Otway Saturday evening to confer the Knight rank on a good sized class. The team will be accompanied by a large number of local knights, who will go to witness the work and to help eat the banquet that will be spread for them. They will go down on the 3:45 N. & W., and will return on the fast midnight train that will make a special stop at Otway for the returning knights. A large crowd is expected to accompany the team.

HARMON SIGNS DEVER BILL

Columbus, O., May 20.—Governor Harmon signed and made a law of the Dever bill authorizing the sale of abandoned state land near Circleville to the N. & W. railroad.

COULD NOT WALK ACROSS THE ROOM

Parents of Growing Girls Should All Be Interested in This Ohio Case.

When the young girl develops into womanhood there is always the danger of a general breakdown unless the blood is pure and red. This is especially true if she overstudies or overworks.

It is a danger, however, that can be easily averted if the warning symptoms of impoverished blood are promptly heeded. Pallor, loss of spirits, depression, lack of ambition and shortness of breath are some of these symptoms which can not be mistaken. To ensure healthful development these must be taken at once to build up the blood, whenever these symptoms are present. The experience of hundreds of women has proved that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best medicine for this purpose. They are a certain blood builder and strengthen and give health to the entire body.

Mrs. W. R. Bailey, who lives on R. F. D. No. 3, Chillicothe, Ohio, near the Sulphur Lick Springs, says Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to her daughter after other remedies had failed. She says:

"Last fall my daughter, Ora, aged sixteen, took a heavy cold at an unfortunate time. She was sick for three months and was confined to bed for a week. She was all run down and suffered from severe nervous spells and headaches. She was pale and kept falling in flesh right along. It was interrupted to walk across the room and would become exhausted and I was compelled to take her out of school.

"One day as I was reading a paper I saw that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured cases like hers and began at once to have her take them. They helped her almost at once, her color came back and she grew stronger. After giving the pills a thorough trial she was cured and able to attend school and has been strong and healthy since."

Parents of girls who go into decline as they reach the period of development should investigate these warning symptoms for the whole future health of the child depends upon the way in which she passes this critical time.

If you desire full information about this treatment, write for a copy of our free booklet, "Plain Talks to Women."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Falls Off A Roof

Cincinnati, O., May 20.—Chas. W. Kidd, 50, of South Portsmouth, Ky., working on the roof of the C. & O. repair shops, slipped Wednesday afternoon, and was unconscious when picked off the ground. At St. Elizabeth's hospital it was found that he had dislocated his hip and sustained numerous other bruises.

Eagles Meet

Three candidate, O. C. Wallace, Edward Hyatt and O. W. Martin were initiated by the Eagles on Tuesday night.

George H. Selmeider and Will N. Goldeman were elected delegates to the state convention of the Eagles, which will be held at Cincinnati in June. Charles Burgbacher and H. C. F. Smith were named as alternates.

Are to Meet Saturday

The Cheerful Workers of the Second Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Leona Tomerlin, 36 East Eleventh St., Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m.

TO SPEND SUMMER IN SWITZERLAND

Dr. J. N. W. Crawford will leave for Geneva, Switzerland, as soon as the present improvements on the Anderson Bros. building and his other properties are completed. This will probably be in about two months, at that the doctor expects to sail from New York the latter part of May.

MRS. LEONARD DIED LATE ON THURSDAY

A message received by relatives in this city Thursday night conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Ella Leonard, daughter of Officer and Mrs. John Diffen, of this city, which occurred at Doanville, Athens county, late Thursday afternoon.

Her death was rather sudden and is particularly sad as she had been sick but a few days. Her death was due to measles, which she contracted during child birth, two weeks ago. The baby lived but two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Diffen and a sister, Mrs. Mark Roach, of this city, were at her bedside when the end came, having gone there last Friday. Other relatives left for Doanville Friday morning to attend the funeral. Surviving besides the parents, are the husband, James Leonard, and four children to mourn her untimely death.

COMPLAINS OF HUSBAND

Laban Pitts has been ordered into police court on complaint of his wife, Mrs. Pitts, of No. 125 Court street, she claiming he has abused her. Mrs. Pitts reported that she and her husband have been separated for some time past. Recently he began circulating reports about her and though she cleared herself, she says, he continued to abuse her.

Complain Of Pool of Water

Complaint has been made to Safety Director Brennan by residents in the vicinity of Tenth and Findlay streets that a pool of stagnant water is standing on N. & W. property at that corner. The N. & W. refuses to abate the nuisance, claiming that people living in that vicinity dump their waste water there forming the pool, instead of in the sewer. The matter was referred to the health department.

Clarence Is To Explain

Clarence Thornton has been ordered to appear before the mayor to explain why he has ignored two notices served by the sanitary policeman to abate a nuisance, in the way of a pool of stagnant water on his premises.

Hoyt Pancake Friday moved from East Fifth to 82 Fifteenth street.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill. — "I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—MRS. ALVINA SPERLING, 1806 Cleybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

School Society Has Pleasing Program

An interesting program of several exceedingly good numbers was the offering of the executive board of the Philomatheon Literary society to the members of the junior class and the society Thursday afternoon at the Second street high school building.

The afternoon entertainment began at 2:30 o'clock with the majority of the class present. Margaret Appel accompanied on the piano a violin duet, played by Arthur Buemler and Thomas Curry. Their rendition of their duet was so pleasing that they were induced to play again at the close of the meeting.

Lillian Thomas recited with skill, James Whitcomb Riley's poem, "Nothing to Say." A reading by Mildred Thomas, "The Organ Builder," was interesting and also appreciated.

Oscar Stanton contributed a piano solo, which preceded an original essay by Arthur Lynn on "The Suffragette."

Louis Brown extemporized on the recent junior-senior banquet, and the business part of the meeting was opened.

Before adjournment the society selected for colors, gold and white, and came to a decision on the junior class motto, "Noblesse Oblige," for the motto of the society.

The society's constitution was read to the members and the meeting closed at 4 o'clock. A debate on the benefits and dangers of "Strikes" was postponed until the next meeting.

Ben Hurs To Meet

The Tribe of Ben Hur will hold a special initiatory meeting Friday night to accommodate a large number of young men that cannot be present on the regular meeting night. A large class will be given the degree work.

Big Rush At Sale

There was such a rush at the Bankrupt sale Friday morning that a call was sent in for the assistance of the police to handle the crowd. Three officers were hurried to the store and remained on duty until the shoppers thinned out.

Our Graduates Are a source of pride and affection. Such pleasure as we feel in their graduation finds a natural expression in the handsome graduation gifts which may be had at our jewelry store. It is but right that the graduates shall expect a reward for their success, and it is proper that such a gift should embody the best of taste, the highest quality and permanent, lasting qualities.

One appreciates that a fine gold watch fulfills these necessities, and when the cost and length of service of an ordinary suit of clothes is considered, it can by no means be thought wasteful to put fifty dollars into a permanent solid gold watch with a life time of service. We are prepared to furnish watches from $12.50 to $100.00, according to accuracy of adjustment and character of case. Each watch may be engraved with a distinctive monogram.

DIAMOND RINGS

If you are thinking of buying a diamond ring, come to us and see our assortment of fine diamonds. If you want something extra good, we have it and the prices are just reasonable — you pay for what you get and no more. You'll be surprised to see what a fine diamond you can get for $75.00.

We've still some stones at the former prices of diamonds.

Garrison Couple Are Arrested Here On A Kidnapping Charge

Will Holsinger and Mrs. Mary Hughes, both of Garrison, Ky., who eloped to this city bringing with them the latter's only son, Oliver, aged 3½ years, were arrested here Thursday evening and taken to Vanceburg Friday to face charges of kidnapping.

The kidnapping, according to the view of the local authorities, was nothing more than a sensational elopement which the woman attempted to justify with a story of alleged abuse and mistreatment at the hands of her husband, Will Hughes.

The couple came to Portsmouth on Tuesday evening and up to the time of their arrest had been staying at the home of Holsinger's sister, Mrs. Sarah Bertram of Eleventh and John streets, though the woman has relatives of her own in the city, among them Mrs. William Lewis of New Eighth street, who is a cousin. The arrest was made at the request of the Lewis county authorities.

Officers Stokely and McCarty went to the Bertram home and brought Holsinger, Mrs. Hughes and the little boy to the police station. Holsinger became very much excited over the arrest but the woman was cool and collected. She said she was a daughter of Sam McCleese, a farmer living on Kinney, twelve miles back of Garrison. She and Holsinger grew up together in the same neighborhood.

Five years ago she married Hughes but they never got along very well. A year or so ago they parted and she secured a divorce upon the ground of cruelty but Hughes sought a reconciliation and they were remarried. Since then they have lived in Garrison. He worked for a time as fireman on the C. & O. but quit the work some months ago and had arranged to spend the summer fishing for mussel shells at Carr's, Ky., where his parents, William S. Hughes and wife, had established themselves on a houseboat.

A month ago Holsinger went to Garrison and was taken into the Hughes home as a boarder. Hughes soon became jealous of his boarder and after several stormy scenes, Holsinger was forced to move. Mrs. Hughes claims her husband beat her and kicked her in his jealous rage.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Hughes said she went to the home of Mrs. Jennie Parker, a sister of Holsinger and was followed there by her husband. She claimed he was armed with a shot gun and made threats of killing her on sight. Mrs. Hughes remained at the Parker home over night and Tuesday came to Portsmouth. She said she induced Holsinger to come along to assist her in getting located, as she was not acquainted here. She said she expected her husband to come for her when his anger subsided.

Later the woman said she had worked here at the Selby Shoe Co. factory, during a previous separation.

Holsinger denied having eloped with the woman. He said he secured work at the Harbison-Walker brick plant, had gone to Garrison after his clothes and happened to come back on the same train with Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Hughes denied she loved Holsinger and said she expected to notify her husband she was in Portsmouth. She said Hughes was the only man she cared for.

The boy in the case is a handsome little chap and neatly dressed. The youngster acted prettily all evening finally wearing himself out and falling asleep across a table in the female ward.

Actions of the pair at police station caused officers to believe they were very much in love with each other. However they went to Vanceburg with Sheriff Lyons without requisition papers.

Last Bill At The Majestic Theatre

The last bill of the season at the Majestic is truly a classy one. The program has four splendid acts and there is not a dull moment from curtain to curtain.

The Musical Millers provide the star act and deserve the place of honor on the fine bill. The Miller trio are real artists in a musical way and won the admiration and applause of the big audience last night. Miss Miller is dashing and pretty and an exceptional singer.

Next in the line-up is Giles Harrington, "purveyor of polite pleasantry." He is a royal entertainer with his songs and stories.

Mae Collins, "the animated German girl," dispenses much fun with her gingery talk and songs.

Diggs and Burns, in a "Bit O' Blarney," are a clever team and cause much laughter and merriment with their droll conversation that sparkles with wit. They are singers extraordinary and made a hit with the crowd at every turn.

In short, the bill is fine all along the line, the pictures as well as the vaudeville.

You should not miss seeing the last program at this popular place of amusement, not because it's the last of the season, but because it's good and ranks with the best. Go to the Majestic the last half.

Find Body In River

A floater found in the Ohio river at a point near Cuttlesburg, Ky., yesterday afternoon was identified as the body of J. C. Volaz, a stone contractor of Roanoke, Va., who has been missing since May 2d. The identification was made by means of an Elk's card found in one of his pockets, which showed that Volaz was a member of the Roanoke lodge of Elks. In his clothes was found $260 in cash and the wearing apparel showed that Volaz was of considerable means.

Marry At Greenup

Greenup, Ky., May 20.—Miss Margaret Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Spencer, of Campbell, Ohio, was united in marriage to Mr. H. B. Parsons, of Brushart, Ky., Thursday.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mattocks. The bride is well known, being one of Lawrence county's most popular school teachers. The groom is a wealthy merchant of Brushart, Ky.

GREEKS SENT BY N. & W. TO IRONTON

Ironton, O., May 20.—A bunch of 10 Greeks or "Dunkies," as they are termed about the railroad camps, were brought here Thursday from the N. & W. double-tracking job near Franklin Furnace, and put to work at the N. & W. freight house to take the places of the striking clerks, but the Greeks only worked part of the day, declining to stay on the job, after the situation had been explained to them by envoys from the clerks.

Things moved slowly at the local freight depots Thursday as a result of the strike.

EVENING TIMES SPORTS

LOCALS OUTCLASSED THE MARION DIGGERS WIN BY SCORE 7 TO 1

Marion, O., May 20.—The timely batting of the Shoemakers, assisted by errors by the locals, gave the Shoemakers the second and last game of their first visit here by a score of seven to one. The Shoemakers played classy ball, making the locals look like a bunch of High school players. The visitors batted hard and timely and with perfect fielding managed to keep the Diggers out of the run column until after two were out in the ninth.

The Diggers were wholly outclassed at all stages of the game. The batting order of the local team was switched in the hope of taking the Shoemakers into camp but the showing was poorer than on the opening day. What seems to be the matter with the local team is a puzzle to the fans, for when the team strikes a hitting streak it loses through miserable fielding. Six errors were piled up in the column in Thursday's game while the Shoemakers went through the contest without a wobble, as on the day previous. The Shoemakers kept up their confidence at all times and scored their first five runs after two were out.

Goulait and Ludwig opposed each other on the firing line, the latter having all the best of the argument from start to finish. Goulait was batted hard at critical times, while at other stages of the game he pitched nice ball. Thirteen hits were made off the local twirler, two of the number being infield scratches. He walked three men and hit another and three of the number assisted the visitors to increase the count in the run column. Ludwig worked in nice style throughout the game but six hits being made off him and two of the number being scratchy. He walked the first man to face him this being his only pass during the game.

The shoemakers started out like a whirlwind, securing two counters in the first frame. After Plummer and Reekheimer had fanned, O'Day tripled to deep center. Scudder sent him over the rubber with a single to right and completed the circuit on Weinberg's double to left center. Herring put a Texas leaguer back of first, but Weinberg was caught at the plate. Three more were added to the count in the sixth. Childs got a life at first and landed on second on Willoughby's bad peg to Thomas. Collis drew a pass and after Ludwig and Plummer popped out, Reekheimer singled to center and Childs crossed over. O'Day then doubled to left center sending Collis and Reekheimer across. The last two counters came in the ninth. Reekheimer was safe on Willoughby's error and O'Day got a hit. Scudder advanced the runners with a sacrifice and they both counted on Weinberg's double to left.

The one run of the Diggers came in the ninth inning, as on previous day and kept the Diggers out of the cipher column. With two out Colligan doubled to right center and completed the circuit on Meehan's double to left center. In all of the other innings aside from the first, when the first two batters up landed on the cushions, the locals did not look much of a chance to get around.

Predictions Are Thrown to Wind

Wonder if those "wise" sporting editors over the Ohio State league circuit are eating cold crow—or are they swallowing their own gall, bitter it must be to their parched throats.

The Shoemakers have played that wonderfully strong Marion team and they have whaled the dickens out of them both times out.

And if memory is onto the job it recalls the fact where those dope artists from Lancaster in the east to Lima in the north have been predicting a terrible, disastrous slump for the locals when they hit Marion. Well the locals have hit Marion all right, all right, and if you should happen to invade the ball parks in that city you would doubtless stumble over the remains of the Diggers, with a sufficient number of dead ones to throw a colored camp meeting into a ghost shop.

As once before stated some of these wise gazzables who have been predicting a terrible slump for the locals have been talking through their little caps. In the first place they had never once seen the Shoemakers in action and simply wrote space fillers. The sport writers in this city have been very conservative—they at least have had enough judgment to keep their own counsel—and are enjoying a good, wholesome laugh. It's always best to laugh at some other fool's jokes than your own any day.

Should Managers Listen To Fans?

The statement made by Fred Clarke recently that he let Bill Abstein go to St. Louis because he realized that the latter had ended his usefulness to the Pittsburg team owing to the fact that the home fans were against him, brings up one of the most interesting problems of baseball.

His case is identical with that of Fred Merkle of the New York Giants, and the two offer almost a parallel. Merkle made his famous break two years ago when he failed to touch a base, and as a result the New York Giants lost the National league pennant to Chicago, the Cubs afterward capturing the world's championship. As a result Merkle got in bad with the New York fans, and it cannot be said that he has really got back into their good graces again. Incidentally his record as a ball player has not been what was expected before the break, and it is a question right now whether McGraw would not give much to have a better man on first. McGraw stuck to Merkle through his trouble, but it is still a question whether he would not have aided the youngster more had he allowed him to go to some other club where he would not have had to face the opposition he has in New York. Clarke, on the other hand, has sent Abstein to another club and league and given him a chance to make a fresh start. These cases and others almost as prominent lead to the question of whether it is not better to secure a young player than to keep an experienced one who is bad with the fans and has not their encouragement to help him win.

To Train At Hot Springs

Manager O'Connor, of the St. Louis Browns is more [illegible] Louis Browns, is more than anxious that the Browns should train at Hot Springs next spring. He thinks it is the only place to train.

Olson Is Suspended

Olson, the Louisville second baseman, who has neglected to report to Manager O'Connor, of the Browns, has been suspended by the national commission.

ALL THE GROCERS SELL MAGNOLIA FLOUR.

UMPIRE'S LIFE NOT HAPPY ONE

The umpire's task is a thankless one at best. Billy Evans calls attention to the fact that the meanest of baseball players can now and then earn applause from the stands, but none ever heard a crowd give an umpire the glad hand for good work.

Surely it is in the worst of taste to jeer an official who is doing an unpleasant duty, to laugh when he is hit by a pitched ball or to abuse him because the game is not going right. Fortunately umpires are well paid to endure as well as to judge or there would be few to take the thankless posts.

TRYING TO STOP FIGHT

San Francisco, May 20.—That a determined effort will be made to prevent the holding of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in this city, was made apparent today, when within a few hours after the definite announcement had been made that the match will be brought to this side of the bay, a delegation called upon District Attorney Pickert and demanded that he take action to stop the proposed bout. Pickert, after declaring he had not had time to investigate the law governing boxing contests in this city, told the delegation that tomorrow morning he would render a definite decision as to the legality of the proposed championship battle.

Bet They Are Black And Blue

Fred Tenney On Jimmy Collins

"Who is the greatest infielder I've ever seen?" says Fred Tenney, recently released by the Giants. "When one considers the number of players with whom I've been associated in the past 17 years it would seem as though the answer to the question would be rather difficult. The names of Lowe, Long, Jennings, McGraw, Wagner, Lajoie, Evers, Devlin, Lench, Bridwell, each man a wonderful player, pass before my mind in review, but one name stands out as head and shoulders above even this galaxy of Stars.

"Possessed of a wonderful pair of hands, a phenominal ground coverer, great thrower, always cool and collected, Jimmy Collins was the infielder par excellence of the national game. No one has ever approached him in ability to play and handle ground balls. I once heard an old player remark that 'Jimmy could go on a railroad track and handle the bonnets between the ties just as well as on smooth field; bad hops might bother others, but never him.'

"His action was as graceful as a French dancing master, never a false move or awkward grab, instinctively his hands seemed to know where the ball was coming and were in position to handle it. In Cincinnati one hot day I saw him give an exhibition that has never been equaled by living man. At that time he was playing with Boston along with Long, Lowe and the writer. We were a fast, powerful aggregation, our greatest delight being to have hard, diffienlt grounders hit to us in practice; always we would yell at the infield hitter to make them harder, then 'kid' him until we had him sore in his endeavor to hit one through us.

"This particular day 'Bill' Clarke was doing the hitting and Jim had him nearly crazy in his efforts to get one by. The rest of us had stopped; Jim was out there alone laughing at Bill. The harder they were hit the easier would he play them. Bill was using the hop and stop, driving low, of a ball to handle."

GIANTS BUMPED BY THOSE REDS

Despite the fact that a small army of players were used by the Giants in their battle with the Reds, Thursday, Griff's men went out by a nose, the score being 8 to 7. Roy Castleton started the hurling bee for the Reds, but his delivery was punctured freely and Big Jack Rowan was substituted and managed to weather the storm, although he was flying the distress signal in the last inning. Rowan was as steady as a clock and did not issue a single free ticket to first. When Jack has control, he is a hard customer to beat. Briddy failed to secure the least semblance of a hit, but he played a nice fielding game. The score:

BRID GOING AT GREAT CLIP

The Cincinnati Post says:

"Al Bridwell played a great game in the field for the Giants and did his share with the stick. Bridwell is just beginning to strike his real gait and will doubtless go at a fast clip from now on."

Name Is Abbreviated

Down on one of the southern teams there is a player named Sefhwicks-hka. Probably he knows in the box as S'ka.

How The Locals Look To A Marion Dopster

Marion, O., May 20.—Diggers have seen the leaders of the league in action and the seeing has only confirmed the local belief that Marion has nothing to fear from Portsmouth. The Shoemakers are going good just now and as was demonstrated very forcibly in the contest yesterday things are breaking finely for the club. But wait until July fourth and see what is happening in the league.

Thursday Harter got away mighty lucky to begin with because good hard clouts and plenty of them went directly into the hands of his supporters. Another time and fortune will not smile so blandly on the visitors. On the other hand it was rare good fortune for the visitors to score the runs they did. Then, of course, the eighth inning donation will not occur very often.

Taken man for man all the way through the Diggers outclass the visitors. This fact will become more evident as the season goes along and Lewis gets his machine into better working order. One thing, however, the manager must correct and that is the indination of the players to disobey orders.

Thursday Reilly went to the plate with instructions to sacrifice. He never made an attempt to carry out the manager's plans and instead tried to hit it out, the result being a weak fly to the outfield. Now, Reilly is a good hitter, but not so good that he can deliver at any time; neither is he such a player that the manager may not tell him what to do. His stunt of hitting on this occasion instead of sacrificing was nothing less than an ivory play and if such is repeated he should be disciplined. The offense would have been less had he played hit and run with Hummel who had led off with a single. But Hummel was looking for a sacrifice and received not hit and run signal. Others of the Diggers have been going directly contrary to the manager's orders lately and fans will approve if Lewis will punish those who go contrary to his instructions.

In the Reilly case Thursday Diggers had shown that they were not being favored any by fortune and that hits were mighty scarce. Why then, could it be considered good baseball to try a play where it would have taken two hits to score a runner when a sacrifice and one hit would have accomplished the same result.

Playing baseball and not playing for averages, will result in more runs. Lewis intends to see that the men do as they are told from this time forth

And the above comes from the Marion Star!

It might be well to explain that it was written before Thursday's Waterloo. And, maybe, the scribe who penned the words has changed his mind. Know full well he has for in his write-up of yesterday's game he makes the startling admission, (a contradiction, by the way) that the Diggers were completely outclassed in every department of the game by the Shoemakers. Consistency, thou art a great big joke.

The thing that is revolving itself around in the heavens is supposed to be Halley's comet, but the one thing that is worrying the writers throughout the circuit is the mad lash the locals are making in the race for the flag. It is simply a matter of figures and not one of prejudice.

Old Heads At Minneapolis

Not much use of any big league manager to go to the Minneapolis club of the American association if he is seeking a promising youngster as nearly all the Millers have seen big league service. Ollie Pickering, a veteran of 14 or 15 years is playing center, while he is flanked by Otis Clymer and Cravath. The infield has as members, Gill, formerly of the Pirates, Jimmy Williams and Hobe Ferris, while worst of the pitchers have seen in the big leagues. Roy Patterson, who was a "boy wonder" back in 1900, while the oft tried Fiene is another with Tom Hughes the real flinging star.

SAVED LIFE OF OMAHA THEATRICAL MANAGER

Adam Bonoff, manager of the Krug theater in Omaha, Neb., and living at 1514 North Seventeenth street, that city, in a statement given for publication, says:

"I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for the past ten years, and had to avoid pastry, potatoes and all starchy food. I was nervous and restless, rarely ever getting a good night's sleep. I always awoke with a dull pain in my stomach, and belched gas frequently. I was constipated all the time.

"I traveled considerably in search of health, and treated with the best physicians in New York, Chicago and Hot Springs without relief, and finally was compelled to give up my business, as I thought, for good.

"A friend recommended Cooper's New Discovery to me. I was desperate, and decided to give it a trial. Am now feeling fine, eating and sleeping well, without any signs of stomach trouble, weighing more than at any other period of my life, having gained fifteen pounds in a few weeks' time. It is a duty with me to recommend Cooper's New Discovery, for I believe it saved my life."

We sell Cooper's New Discovery, the medicine recommended by Mr. Bonoff. It has a remarkable record, and has a tremendous sale throughout the country. We will take pleasure in explaining its nature to you.

BAKERS WENT ON A STRIKE

On the refusal of the firm to grant them Sundays as a holiday, the bakery laid down their aprons and baker, laid down their aprons Thursday evening and went out on a strike. The action of the men had been suspected and the firm immediately filled the places of the men, and the bakery turned out its pies, cakes and bread as usual Friday morning.

It seems that the men have been getting off at 10:30 a. m. on Saturday mornings and working until 13:30 on Sundays. They demanded that the firm give them all of Sunday, they agreeing to work overtime on Saturday. This arrangement, the firm informed them, would result in them having to furnish customers stale bread on Monday, and they absolutely refused to consider the proposition. Whereupon five of the men quit. One of the strikers, however, soon came back and began mixing bread the same as usual.

Within six hours after the walkout occurred, the firm had secured men to take the place of the strikers and according to Edward Knittel, manager, the concern is moving along as though nothing unusual had taken place. It is said the firm holds no resentment against the men who walked out and it would not occasion any surprise should they all be back to work before many days.

THE ROOT JUICE SENSATION GROWING

Surprising Demand for Root Juice at Wurster Bros'. Drug Store Continues on the Increase.

Wonderful things are happening here these days. Many people that suffered with chronic troubles for years thought were beyond help. WHICH BANK?

AMONG THE MANY POINTS TO BE CONSIDERED in the selection of a financial depository are (1) the absolute safety of funds deposited, (2) the facilities it offers for the prompt and careful handling of your business, and (3) the ability of its management to advise you in matters of financial investment.

The opinions of all classes of business firms and corporations in and around Portsmouth would assure you that the high standing of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK was won only by the strictest adherence to the above requirements.

We will be glad to PROVE this to YOU.

FIGHT FILMS AT GRAND TONIGHT

No doubt a large crowd of fight fans will be present at the Grand opera house tonight and Saturday night when the films of the late Wolgast-Nelson scrap will be reeled off. Manager Higley states that the films are clear and that the pictures show the fight in its minutest details, showing just how near Nelson came to copping the fight in the 23d round. The many admirers of the Battling Dane will have a chance to size him up with the Milwaukee bear cat, who waded through 41 rounds of terrific milling before he was declared the winner and was crowned king of the lightweight fighters of the world. The show will last to exceed one hour.

Joe McGinnity Has Gold Mine

Joe McGinnity seems to have uncovered a gold mine in his Newark club. The crowds in that city have broken all records, especially on Sundays. The iron-armed pitcher evidently know something when he got his release from the Giants and bought this valuable minor league plant.

BE A ROOTER

Everybody be a rooter,
Root for Portsmouth all the time.
Get the rooting habit,
It will help the team to climb.
Take your hammer from your pocekt,
Bury it down in the sand.
For the team will play the harder
If you root to beat the band.
Always give the boys the glad hand,
Cheer them on in ever game.
And if they're behind a little,
Keep on rooting just the same.
Knocking never won a pennant;
Never helped a team to play.
Then get into the rooters' wagon,
Whooper up! Hip-hip hooray!

OTWAY.

The comet is the absorbing topic of conversation in our village. Here, as elsewhere, the stars are observed as never before and happy is he that detects the celestial wanderer among them.

So far none of our citizens has adopted "Billy Butt-in's" plan of an oxygen-tank. However, the comet has been blamed for sins both many and great. A certain man went out and looked at his garden the other day and found everything frozen, sadly he shook his head and said, "It's that comet." Then he thanked his stars and took courage and replanted "for it'll be 75 years before we have another such a season.

High prices of course are due to the comet, but everything has its bright side, own a comet but so far many have failed to see it though rising early to do so.

But to the fellow that gets in the "wee small" hours of the night, well, blessings on the comet.

A belated citizen was greeted the other night in this wise: "That you, John?" Yes, Mandy." "What do you mean by comin' home at this hour o' the night?" "That's a pretty——!! "Never mind, Mandy," said John, It's all right, I've been lookin' at the comet," and peace reigned supreme. Blessings on the comet!
